THE RATS REVENGE

JAN 26 1924

To be the most big hearted among all cats seemed to be the impression that Addison Cat wished to gain. He started out by giving free rides on his new sled to every little wayward mouse that he met. But is sooned proved that these rides were short and only a means of tricking the victims into Addison's big trap. After each catch Addy always tucked his victim away in his hand bag. Then he went away whistling. As he wasbreezing thru the park, he met "Flat Foot" the cop, of Rough Town and of course suspicious were aroused as to the contents of Addy's bag. Flat Foot calls a halt grabs the bag and scares Addy away. As had been his experience many times before the Rough Town cop prepares himself for a few snappy drinks of good "bootleg" but when he opens the bag and is greeted by a storm of mice, he falls in a faint and all the mice escape.

Addison was hiding behind a tree nearby he sees the escaping mice, so he gets his lariat in action and soon has little Minnie Mouse tied Hand and foot to a tree, pleading for dear life. After Addison has sharpened his razor and cut off a few of Minnie's whiskers, she stops him long enough to tell him the fanciful and amusing story of the "Lion and the Mouse". Providing beyond doubt that even a little tiny mouse can save the life and be a real "awfully" good friend to a big rough lion.

All this silvery tongued story telling just about stopped Addy's show and he burst out in tears. Then he took the selfsame razor that he intehded to use as a murderers wand and cut the rope that held little Minnie a prisoner he turned his back and wept bitterly. Once free again sly little Minnie began to laugh and seeing a rock handy bounced it on the head of Addison, and ran away with Addy following close behind. Nevertheless Minnie in convinced the "A sweet voice with a smile always wins."
